

CALL FOR APPLICANTS FOR THE POSTGRADUATE SUMMER SCHOOL

Comparative Law in the Age of Globalization: Contributions from the Global South to the Contemporary Debate on Legal Theory

ACADEMIC YEAR 2017/2018

ARTICLE 1

AVAILABLE PLACES FOR APPLICATION

Notice is hereby given of the application process for the Postgraduate Summer School "Comparative Law in the Age of Globalization: Contributions from the Global South to the Contemporary Debate on Legal Theory", organized by the Department of Political Sciences "Jean Monnet" of the Università degli Studi della Campania Luigi Vanvitelli.

The number of available places is 5 (five) places reserved for foreign Ph.D. students.

ARTICLE 2

GOALS OF THE SUMMER SCHOOL

The course is addressed to foreign Ph.D. students, and offers new methodological instruments to conduct comparative law research in law and political studies with relation to globalization and cultural and political diversity. Diversity and multiculturalism have become today essential aspects of many polities and national states (unitary or federal) all around the world, making "East-West" (as well as "North-South") comparisons vital to understand the present problems of democracy and the future of public and private law. The course will analyse the institutional and legal experience of Europe and Asia through the participation of scholars from both sides and the organization of joint seminars.

ARTICLE 3

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
